

Hilton Santa Clara Welcomes New General Manager Colleen Huther

Santa Clara, CA, December 20, 2017 - The Hilton Santa Clara is proud to announce that Colleen Huther has been appointed as General Manager. In this role, Huther will be responsible for the hotel's day-to-day success, overseeing all operational aspects of the 280-room property, while achieving key business goals and ensuring guest satisfaction.

Colleen has been a prominent figure in the hospitality business for over 30 years. Colleen was most recently with Hilton Worldwide as General Manager of the Embassy Suites Mandalay Bay Beach Hotel & Resort in Oxnard, CA. Prior to this, Huther held the position of general manager of The Annapolis Marriott Waterfront Hotel in Annapolis, Maryland, managed by the Thayer Lodging Group. The property experienced tremendous growth and success under her tenure. Her role with Thayer expanded as a VP of asset management overseeing 11 full and select service hotels while continuing as general manager of The Annapolis hotel.

"I am thrilled to be joining the Hilton Santa Clara team," says Colleen. "The property has a strong reputation and an amazing energy! I am excited to be a part of the continued success of this fantastic property."

The sophisticated Hilton Santa Clara hotel, is located in the heart of Silicon Valley, adjacent to Levi's Stadium and California's Great America theme park, and directly across from the Santa Clara Convention Center. This AAA 4-diamond hotel in Santa Clara, CA is set in an attractive resort-style building, just 20 minutes from the San Jose International Airport (SJC), and is consistently ranked as Santa Clara's #1 full-service hotel by travelers on TripAdvisor for over 4 years running.

Where: Hilton Santa Clara Hotel
4949 Great America Pkwy.
Santa Clara, CA. 95054

Contact: For information and reservations, contact (408) 562- 6731 or hiltonsantaclara.com